Cian Byrne

+ 353 83 857 7260 | Clontarf, County Dublin | cianbyrne7@gmail.com

University graduate of BA in Information Technology & Communications and English at University College Dublin. Currently undergoing Master of Science in Computer Science – Interactive Digital Media at Trinity College Dublin. Seeking full-time work upon completion of the program on the 22nd of September, or a summer internship 2022.

Education

Trinity College Dublin                                                                                                                    2021-2022

M.Sc. Computer Science - Interactive Digital Media.

- Expected Grade: Distinction
- Relevant Coursework: Web Design (HTML, CSS), Graphic Design, Programming (JavaScript, Java), Visual Computing (3DsMax, Processing).

University College Dublin                                                                                                              2018-2021

B.A. English and Information Technologies.

- Grade: Second Class Honours. (GPA: 3.47/4.2) II.i.
- Relevant Coursework: Web Publishing, Artificial Intelligence, Critical Theory, Information Design, Organisation and Retrieval of Information, Computer-Mediated Communication.

Ard Scoil Rís                                                                                                                                      2012 - 2017

- Irish Leaving Certificate: 403 points achieved.

Experience

Science Gallery                                                                                                                              Dublin, Ireland

Mediator                                                                                                                          December 2021 – currently

- Responsible for setting up technical interactive exhibits.
- Explaining the meaning behind FTC and AI related displays.
- Maintaining the equipment performance for the BIAS within AI exhibition.

Trinity College Dublin                                                                                                               Dublin, Ireland

Lab Steward                                                                                                                   September 2021 – currently

- Responsible for the maintaining of COVID guidelines in computer science labs.
- Management of data such as student numbers and emails.

Number 16 English Academy                                                                                                    Spain, Zaragoza

English Teacher                                                                                                                      April 2021 – July 2021

- Taught English of all levels of proficiency from A1-C2
- Responsible of classes of up to 10 people of all ages from 12-80.
- Gave speaking and written exams to evaluate level of English, which I later marked.
- Taught online classes via webcam and microphone.
- Did necessary admin work such as attendance and in class performance.

Super Value                                                                                                                                  Dublin, Ireland

Shop Assistant                                                                                                            December 2019 – March 2021

- Served customers with a variety of payment systems in a fast-paced environment.

GameStop                                                                                                                                      Dublin, Ireland

Sales Assistant/ Key Holder.                                                                                   September 2018 – December 2019

- Intense and competitive KPI based sales environment.
- Key Holder position after six months.
- Training and managing new staff.

Henry J Lyons Architects                                                                                    Dublin, Ireland

Archivist                                                                                            February 2018 – July 2018

- Archived old print jobs and drawings into spreadsheet documents.
- Assisted many architects with print jobs for clientele such as Google.

Certificates

- Irish Barista Academy – Barista Training
- Future Proof Training – Manual Handling
- Future Proof Training – HACCP

Achievements and Skills

- Released a single on the Spotify platform which has reached over 100,000 streams under the title "Tell Me What You Want".
- Winner of UCD Battle of the Bands.
- Attended a Davy Group (€14bn AUM) Insight Day at their Equity Trading Desk
- Installed computer systems for Leo Pharmaceutical company.
- Building PCs and Websites.
- General Production Officer for Belfield FM student radio station.

Links

- Portfolio: https://drive.google.com/file/d/1LWmdjrOSjQEAAPeYqDaDQJCky3tSEyWF/view?usp=sharing

- Undergraduate Academic Transcript: https://drive.google.com/file/d/1om86od5lgx-ENJZOum2qky0d9-yaOiVH/view?usp=sharing

- LinkedIn Profile: https://www.linkedin.com/in/cian-byrne-050698186/